BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

HAPGOOD, ADAMS & RITEZEL. PUBLISHERS OF WESTERN RESERVE CHRONICLE

EMPIRE BLOCK, MARKET ST. For terms, rates of advertising, dr., see inside. "40

MANUFACTURERS.

JAMESON & WHEELER, Manufacturers of Stoves, Plows, Castings, Tinwar Stove Furniture, Stove Pipe, &c. No. 5, Marks Street, Warren, O. April 19, 163,

CRANAGE & GILMORE. Innufacturers and Dealers in Boots, Shoes, Rubbers &c. Also Dealers in Leather, Findings, Lasts, &c. Market Street, Warren, Ohio,

EAR. E. SPEAR, JR. EDWARD SPEAR & SON, ufacturers and Dealers in Lumber, Rough an essed, Doors, Blinds, Sash, Fluoring, Siding ingles and Lath, No I, Canal Street, Warren, C

W. H. HULL CO., Manufacturers of Improved Steam Engines, Iron and Brass Founders and Millwrights, Franklin Foundry, Corner of Liberty and South Streets, Warren, Ohio.

anufacturer and Dealer in Boots, Shoes, Leath and Findings, Main Street, Warren, Ohio, E. H. ALLISON, fanufacturer and Dealer in Saddles, Harnesees Bridles, Martingales, Trunks, Whijs, Buffalo and Pancy Robes, Horse-Blankets, Covers, Fly-Nets &c., No 17, west side of Main Street, Warren, O.

ALEXANDER MCCONNELL

WILLIAM TAYLOR,

PROFESSIONAL.

ISAAC GRIFFIN.

Surveyor and Notary Public, West Farmington, A. D. FELL, County Surveyor and Civil Engineer. Deeds at knowledged and convey ancing attended to. Bare' knowledged and conveyancing attended to.

knowledged and conveyancing attended to.

Hill, Hartford Trumbuil Co., Ohio.

Jan. 14, 1863.—1 y.5.

F. W. MESSERSCHMIDT. Civil Engineer and Land Surveyor, Warren, Ohlo.
Leveling and Surveying in Coal Mines attended to. Also Examinations, Maps and Reports of Collieries unde.

April 23, 52

At the time that Morgan

BUCKINGHAM & DUNN Attorneys and Counsellors at Law, Cleveland, C

GEORGE F. BROWN, Attorney at Law, Webb's New Block, Main Stree Warren, Ohio. A. W. JONES,

Attorney at Law and Real Estate Agent, at Power Corners, Mecca, Trumbull County, Ohio. I. L. FULLER, Attorney at Law; office in Jameson's building, Mar-ket Street, Warren, Ohio.

MUTCHINS, RATLIFF & FORRIST, Attorneys at Law: office over Freeman, Hunt Ca 's Banking Office, Market Street, Warren, Ohi

TUTTLE & STULL, Attorneys at Law; office at the old office of Sur & Tuttle, High Street, two doors west of the TAYLOR & JONES attorneys at Law, Office in the Rooms formerly cupied by Forrist & Burnett, east side of Pa Square, Warren, Ohio.

BIRCHARD & MOSES. Atterneys at Law, Warren, O., Office one d of Gaskill House. April 2, 1862-tf*

COX & SPEAR, Attorneys at Law, office on Market Street Store of Iddings & Morgan, Warren, On

Dr. JULIAN HARMON, Physician and Surgeon; office north side of Put Square, Warren, Ohio. Office hours from 7 to 9 clock morning and evening, and from 1 to 2 l Dr. F. A. BIERCE, Residence in Sutliff's Block, north of the Put Square. Office up stairs, residence east end the Block. WOODS & DILLON. Physicians and Surgeons; office over Nichols' Clo-ing Store, Main Street, Warren, Ohio.

Physician and Surgeon, Office in Sutliff's Block, north of the Pu

Physicians and Surgeons; office east of Market Street, Warren, Ohio.

J. DAVIS, M. D..

T. G. HORTON, M. D., Eulogtic Physician and Surgeon, Bristol, Trumba E. MOORE.

Physician and Surgeon: office at the residence of F. Bronson, Southington, Trumball County, Oh L. SPEAR, M. D., Eclectic Physician and Surgeon; office over Morer Store, Market Street, Warren, Ohio. Particula attention given to Chronic Diseases. J. C. BOWMAN.

Physician and Surgeon, Girard, Trumbull Ohio. Particular attention given to Dis-the Lungs, Chronic Diseases in general. Dr. A. E. LYMAN.

MERCANTILE. R. H. BARNUM. Wholesale and Retail dealer in American eign Hardware, Iron, Nails, Glass, &c., der's Block, Market Street, Warren, Ohi

Mecombs & SMITHS. Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Foreign and American Dry Goods, Groceries, Crockery, &c., Corne of Main and Market Streets, Warren, Ohio.

PECK & BROTHER, Wholesale and Retail Dealers in Foreign and Do mestic Dry Goods, Silk and Straw Bonnets, Trim mings, Varieties, &c., at the sign of the "Warre Dry Goods Store," Phonix Block, Warren, Ohio

W. N. & W. F. PORTER.

IDDINGS & MORGAN. Dealers in Staple and Fancy Dry Goods, Groceries Crockers, Hardware, Carpeting, Sole Leather, &c. at the sign of the "Empire Store," Market Street Warren, Ohio.

PARKS & WENTZ, Dealers in Foreign and Domestic Dry Goods, Crock-ery, Boots, Shoes and Leather, Carpeting, Paper Hangings, Window Shades, Ready Made Ciothing, &c., always cheap for rendy pay at the New York Store, Market Street, Warren, Ohio.

The Star of Liberty.

BY MR. MAGINN. Not dedicated to the Democrats of the United gan was not long in discovering that we Star of the brave! whose beam hath shed Such glory o'er the quick and dead; Thou radiant and adered deceis, Which millions rashed to arms to greet! Wild noteer of immortal birth, Why rise in heaven to set on earth? H.

Souls of sinin heroes formed thy rays; Eternity flashed through thy blaze! The music of thy martial sphere Was fame on high and honor hero; And the light broke on human eyes Like a voltame of the skies. III

Like lava rolled thy stream of blood. And sweet down empires with its flood. Earth recked beneath thee to her base, As then didst lighten through all space And the shore sun grew dim in air, And set while then wert dwelling there. IV. Before theorose and with thee grow A rainbow of the loreliest hac; Of three bright colors, each divine, And fit for that celegial sign; For freedom's hand had blended them Like tints in an immortal gem.

One tint was of the sunbeam's dyes; One, the blue depth of straights eyes; One, the pure spirit's veil of white Had robed in radiance of its light; The three, so mingled, did bessens The texture of a heavenly dream.

Star of the brave! thy ray is pale, And darkness must again prevail! But oh! thee rainbow of the free! Our tears and blood must flow for thee! When thy bright promise fades away, Our life is but a load of clay.

VII. and freedom ballows with her tread The silent cities of the dead;
For beautiful in death are they
Who prounly fall in her array;
And soon, oh Goddless! may we be Forever more with them or thee.

Correspondence.

STEARCH SCIOTO, GALLIPOLIS, O. July 23d, 1863. Eds. Chronicle-Thinking that a word om Southern Ohio might be interesting to your readers at this time I give you a orief description of what I have seen and

At the time that Morgan crossed the river into Indiana, we were running beAltorney at Law. Having retired from Army, on accounted disability from wounds, would reveal that he has eurning as usual and succeeded in getting away again with about five his profession. He will show, for the practice of the practice of the practice of the specific of the State should ever hold in grateful remembrance the num who thus won so much went from Army, on accounting two of the State should ever hold in grateful remembrance the num who thus won so much character for our State. The few who endeavored to escape a full performs a five his profession. He will also practice before, beef the profession. He will also practice before the Counties. He will also practice of the practice of the specific or the state of At the time that Morgan crossed the the river with 4,000 men. We considered it an idle tale; we did not believe that he would venture to cross the Ohio, daring horse thief though he is. Time proved that Gen. Judah was upon him; the balling him during his absence.

The large militia force assembled near Columbus, kept the enemy from attempting an attack upon this place. All the our toy contact in this its hour of tremthe rumor to have been correct. But still nobody thought he could do us any harm, we thought the Indiana boys would kinds of hardships and traveled over six been sacked and pillaged. were mistaken.

mand, consequently we had an opportunity of seeing the effect of Morgan's raid if any larger than their own. upon the people along the border; and here let me say that there was more ex-Attorney at Law and Notary Public, Warren, Ohio, callections promptly made. Deeds acknowledged, and Conveyancing attended to; office in McCombs & Smith's Block. became somewhat secustomed to these raids, especially along the latter, the no-Attorney at Law and Prosecutor for Trumbuil County; office at the Old Clerk's Office, north of torious Jenkins, having frequently distinct House; Warren; Ohio. of a gentleman and a true soldier, his defense of so important a military post I thought quite insufficient. It consists of red convalescants, and about 1600 miltia, Here I found a great many acquain> close upon him, since he crossed the Ohio now come up, and for the first time daring a chase of over 500 miles the notorious herse thief was obliged to meet our brave boys in battle. The contest was of short duration, the rebels were thrown into confusion almost at the first fire, and had there been grad gavarable in the last the first fire, and had there been grad gavarable in the last the first fire, and the marched past. The troops were then marched past. The troops were under command of Major Way.

>
> In the first of these engagements the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagements the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagements in the guars from the batteries on Cummings of the oldes inhabitant. "or any other time of the oldes inhabitant." or any other time of the oldes inhabitant. "or any other time of the oldes inhabitant." or any other time of the oldes inhabitant. "or any other time of the oldes inhabitant." or any other has the content of the past of the sends the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagements the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagements the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagements the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagements the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagements the enemy lost in killed, wounded and prissone pagement in the class of the oldes inhabitant. "o to confusion almost at the first fire, and had there been good generalship displayed by Judah, Morgan's entire force (with the exception of what had escaped across the river) would have been captured, but a gap was left open and the guarrilla with about 1500 men escaped. In this fight ceeded down the river, at a distance of arriving at the river soon after, he marched his men to the waters edge, intending to cross at all hazards. But luckily just at above, and our Steamer from below appeared in sight. He asked a citizen who stood near, what Boats these were .-The man after taking a good look at them as if to satisfy himself in regard to them, replied "I reckon they are Gun Boats." The man reports that this was a hard Dealer in School and Miscellaneous Books, Station-ery, Wall Papers, Periodicals, Pamphlets and Magazines, at the New York Book Store, Main Street, Warren, Ohio.

We learn from a correspondent, that blow on Morgan, he ordered his men up the bank behind the houses, and pulling of the town, and were not aware that there was a rebel within fifty miles, and the administration, the war, &c., but was General Assembly. Steps have also been the administration, the war, &c., but was General Assembly. Steps have also been removal. She was answered by the first the administration, the war, &c., but was General Assembly. there was a rebel within fifty miles, and would not have known it until it was too late had it not been for a citizen who ran down the river bank and gave us the

went to the top of a small hill close by to Governor Tod to the People of Ohio for animations had never unspread the reconnoiter the position; we found our THE STATE OF URIN. EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT prospects anything but flattering. Morwere unarmed, and he mounted two hun- To the People of the Shate: mile below us. We instantly called a dress you.

council of war, and we determined to Late in the night of the †2th lestant two hundred opened on us with small areas, their cannon having been captured previously. They were completely conwitten and in addition to this within his reach, and in addition to this distribution to the distribution to the distribution to the distribution.

Rebels the next day.

sound thrashing. Our boys were indeed bers of the militia moved promptly our

Yours Truly, G. A. KNIGHT. Clerk Steamer Scioto.

Fourteenth Ohio Battery.

CORINTH, July 24th, 1863.

'guards' are a fine company and would er then made his appearance, escorted by Lisbon, Columbiana county, this day, "guards" are a fine company and would have welcomed Morgan with a vengance.

The welcomed Morgan with a vengance.

The was marched in front of the whole of the second of this post; but he was wise, leaving Gallipolis fifteen or sixteen miles to the south, he passed in the possed on to Buffington's Island, where he attempted to cross the river; there he was met by one of our gunboats, and checkmated, but not until some 190 of his men had succeeded in crossing the super The gunboat attempted to cross the river; there he was seen slowly advancing in the dusk after his head was covered by hus and succeeded in crossing the support of the support he passed on to Buffington's Island, where marched to the centre of the square, and and of the militia there assembled, were his men had succeeded in crossing the after his head was covered he buried his ville, our forces, consisting of the 5th river. The gunbout delayed him some face in his hands, to await the fatal mo- Michigan Cavalry, and our Militia forment. At a little before ten o'clock, the "Detail" at a distance of about fifteen Way.

In the first of these engagements the close upon him, since he crossed the Ohio "Detail" at a distance of about fifteen about 1500 men escaped. In this fight we lost several in killed and wounded.

Lieut. S. M. Laird has been promoted proud of the achievement.

The losses on our side have been tri-good officers in their new positions.

Yours Truly.

Toning Down a Butternut.

We learn from a correspondent, that off his hat and throwing it on the ground he said "Damn the Yankees; I can't go to the river at no place but what five or six of their damned Gun Boats are watching ma."

there rendered himself extremely obnoxious to the citizens and several soldiers, on account of his disloyalty. He proudinformed the soldiers that it represented the soldiers that it represented the sentiments of his heart. They, at the sentiments of his heart. They, at according to property will necessarily be large in dollars and cents, but is insignificant when contrasted with the beneficial results to our State and country, whose name we forbear to give, made her appearance at one of our stores are rived.

The damage to property will necessarily be large in dollars and cents, but is insignificant when contrasted with the beneficial results to our State and country, whose name we forbear to give, made her appearance at one of our stores are rived.

Columns, July 26, 1884.

dred of his men and he started down the The exciting and important event river at their head to intercept us; we which have transpired within the last could already see the freebooters half a two weeks, make the present moment fitting one for the Chief Executive to so run the blockade at all hazards. We had received reliable information that a well not proceeded down the river more than organized rebel force of cavalry and artwo miles when we saw one of the But-tillery, supposed to exceed five thousand in number, under lead of the notorious ternuts dressed in citizens clothes at John Morgan, was about to enter the the waters edge, hailing us; in the mean Southwestern portion of our State. Availtime however, we protected the pilot ing myself of the power given me by the Constitution and Laws, I at once, by house in case we were attacked, and had Proclamation, called out for the defense our muskets (seven in all) put in fighting of the State, that portion of its organcondition, for we all felt sure we would ized militia forces residing within the be attacked and we were not kept long counties supposed to be in danger. As in suspense. This rebel after moving his hat until he saw that we would not stop, sung out to us that there were rebels below and we had better turn back. But we kept on and when we got opposite to we kept on and when we got opposite to the control of the same and the control of th

We do not know how many of our shots the call, at all points, was most gratis Federal authorities all aid in my power, the call, at all points, was most grate fying. With but very few individual case the draft soon to be made; and ceptions, the men called into service, for the engagement, and but a few minutes before the first assault was made getting everything but duty, promptly good men throughout the State in this minutes before the first assault was made by General Strong, the Admiral ran the Montauk directly under the guns of Fort. took effect, but a citizen that lived near by told us that he helped bury two dead by told us that he helped bury two dead ceptions, the men called into service, for all earns the implies the assistance of all All the while that this was going on, signed them, and when en route for came. The brillion achievements of our forces, after round from his 15-inch gun, sending Eenediet Arnold and all the traitors of true, to the best of their knowledge and dom shots, were gobbled up in a hurry by other points indicated for the assemblage block

After Morgan had passed Cin., this show of resistance; they supposed that making so little in the numerous skirmishes and engagement was loaded with commissary Chronicle Friends—The reason of my not ble me to do justice to all the officers in recall a few recent incidents. When sidered one of the best officers in the ser-shot and shell, and the only messages he riting scoper is on account of the inac-In no town that I have been in along the border, have I seen less excitement, and more coolness and good sense displayed, than at Gallipolis. Captain Hunter the commander of the post has the bearings. commander of the post has the bearing more than to capture stragglers, as they information, I will, at a future day, do who were the real chiefs. They chose for and the 2d South Carolina, (colored.) Col. have done several times, near this town.

Yesterday, the 23d, the troops of this Yesterday, the 23d, the troops of this to the interests of the State in this crisis, an old reactionary of the time of Santa post were ordered to the parade ground The enemy entered the State on the Anna. to witness the execution of A. J. John night of the twelfth instant, in the north-

we lost several in killed and wounded, among whom was Maj. McCook, a noble J. W. Parker has been appointed first but I am pained to be compelled to announce that a few gallant spirits have a sergeant. Henry E. Haynes has been appointed first sergeant, in Company B. first regiment Alabama Siege Artillery. The above promotions were satisfactory boys who bear his name, and who have place, until he came to a road leading in to all, and we believe the men will make won so much glory and renown for our arms in this great struggle. Major Mc-Cook, though advanced in years, has per-The health of the Battery is good; we illed his life, as a volunteer, upon many have a daily field drill, which is quite un- of our battle fields; believing that he pleasant in warm dusty weather. The Battery is under good discipline and are well drilled, and only await the opportugagement near Buffington's Island. His nity to give a good account of ourselves. memory will be cherished by all, and the sincere sympathies of all true patriots will be given to his widow and children. Throughout the entire contest I was in constant communication, both day and night, with Major Gen. Burnside, who had command of the entire forces: and I take great pleasure in testifying to the zeal, last week a young man a resident of New Middletown went to Enon Valley and while conducted the campaign.

Let me say, then, to the military forces of Ohio, both volunteers and militia, go; ignion by forward with your organizations. This raid has taught you the leson that you have something to do, and ant your trainings are not more idle cer. cace-upon you, the people of the Sinte depend to maintain law and preserve order und quiet in every neighborhooube prepared at once to do your duty

In some of our sister States, serious riots, resulting in the loss of many lives ad large destruction of property, have ceurred on account of the efforts of the ederal authorities to enforce the laws for the preservation of our Government. I am happy to announce to the people of the State, that there is not just caus

The State authorities have but little to cealed until they commenced firing, then there was at Camp Chase over thousand fire content to it, however, in season, that honest and faithful agents, cealed until they commenced firing, then there was at Camp Chase over those and the property of the stand faithful agents, they raised up and we could see that the bushes were full of Gray Coats. We returned their fire and it was kept up on the bushes were full of Gray Coats. We returned their fire and it was kept up on the commence of the minimum that the point was turned their fire and it was kept up on the commence of the minimum that there was at Camp Chase over those and the bushes and faithful agents, adjusted by the federal authorities to execute the draft. Fairness and justness, therefore, are guaranteed to every citizen. Additionally, the commence of the stand faithful agents, adjusted by the federal authorities to execute the draft. Fairness and justness, therefore, are guaranteed to every citizen. About fifty shots struck the boat, several The other points named for the assem- glorious government. Our brave and galtional troops are required to maintain our passing through the cabin but no one was blage of the militia, outside of Cincinnati. Lant boys in the field require assistance in were Camp Dennison, Chillicothe, Poris- men from home, and they must have it were in Morgans rear, were gaining upon in a manner most creditable. The people him, and he was overtaken not more than of the State should ever hold in grateful er with their strongholds, give us the tion of the fort facing the sea, and dis-

DAVID TOD, Governor,

wise responsible for the disgrace that at taches to the surrender. The conduct of named as Emperor, and if he does not a charge over an open beach for a half a to a high judicial functionary, talk to a Col. Sontag, although a volunteer officer, accept, then the council bumbly throws mile. General Strong was assigned the mob in mild and deprecatory language, without appointment or commission, shall, itself at the feet of the Emperor of France, command of the lst Brigade. Colonel instead of putting them down with Forey's decree to select an Assembly or their brigade commanders before; some showed it to his brother, and asked him son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted

son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted son, a private in the first regiment of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted of Alabama cavalry. He had been convicted of Alabama cavalry. He had been c abama cavalry. He had been convicted by a large Federal force, and passing through the counties of Butler, by a court martial of desertion, and of serving in the ranks of the enemy.

Serving in the ranks of the enemy.

Jackson, Gallia, Meigs, Vinton, Hocking. At eight o'clock, a. m. the troops were Athens, Washington, Morgan, Muskington, Muskington, Morgan, Muskington, Mu At eight o'clock, a. m. the troops were formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger then made his appearance, escorted by

At eight o'clock, a. m. the troops were formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger then made his appearance, escorted by

At eight o'clock, a. m. the troops were formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger then made his appearance, escorted by Lisbon, Columbiana county, this day.

At eight o'clock, a. m. the troops were formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger than a hollow square. The prison-ger than a hollow square for the square formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger than a hollow square for the square formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger than a hollow square for the square formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger than a hollow square for the square formed in a hollow square for the square formed in a hollow square. The prison-ger than a hollow square for the square formed in a hollow square for the square formed in a hollow square for the square for th

Capt. C. W. Smith of your place, I consider a model soldier.

It was thought by nearly all here that Morgan would attempt the capture of this post; but he was wise, leaving Gallign to the passed in the passed in good a run, and "Will salipetre explode?"

was aqueston more frequently asked than answered a few years ago. The latest slang expression, or rather the latest slang itzers, raking the ditches from the basway of asking a very old-fashioned question, is, "How are year" This is now from almost every other modern implements upon all sides, and the lovers of ments of warfare. The rebels fought with slang pride themselves upon the fantas- the utmost desperation, and so did the tical manner in which they diversify the larger portion ofGen . Strong's brigade, emphasis upon the last word of the question. Adapting the fashion to current mand. events, we hear a hundred times a day, "How are you, Conscript?" or "How are Gen. Strong gallantly rode at its head.—you, Draft?" This latest colloquial oddity When it fell back, broken, torn and bleedseems to be a growth of the war, as the ing, Major Plampton of the 3d New Hamp first we ever heard of it was in the stories shire was the highest commissioned offitold of the early campaigns on the Poto- cer to command it. Gen. Strong, Col mae, where the pickets on either side Shaw, Col. Chatfield, Col. Barton, Col. hailed each other with "How are now, Green, Col. Jackson, all had fallen. Reb?" "How are you, Yank?" are you, Butternut?" There are f in phrases as there are in coats, hats and now the turn of Col. Putman, commandwhiskers. How are year is about as harming the 2d Brigade, composed of the 7th less as any of its peculiar predecessors in N. H., the 62d Ohio, Col. Steele, the 67th the world of slang, and it will probably ontinue in vogue until something newer, and no more witty or quaint, jostles it aside and fascinates the ear of the mill-men to, over and into the fort, and for an

By this time we were up to the edge Butternut, upon which he commenced the amount of damage sustaine d, all of Another young lady, from Oliverburg, a LING # BROTHER.

Ling #

The Attack on Fort Wagner

still, thus fresh and unknown to each other, they were able to do such efficient of the unsuccessful attack on Battery Wagner, on Morris Island on the 18th

> Since the engagement of the 11th, Gen. Gillmore has strained every nerve strengtuen his position on Morris Island, nd so far as human foresight can discern a made his lines of defense impregna ble before advancing to the attack.-Three fourths of the island is in our posession; five batteries have been erected, in all containing nine 30 pound and four 20-pound Parrotts, and ten 10-inch mortars on the left, with two 30-pound Parrots, ten 10-inch mortars, and three full batteries of light artillery on the left .-The extreme right rests on the ocean swamp, about five hundred yards from the small creek separating Morris Island what he thinks of covernor servoce. batteries sweeps in the line of a semi-circle, and is at all points about 1,800 yards of Genesco on the 15th instant on the from Fort Wagner. Nearly all the guns topics of the day. In the course of his upon the left are about 4,000 yards from remarks he said he never saw a problem Fort Sumter; but being of lighter charthat he was less able to solve than this acter than those brought to bear on that How a man outside of a lunatic asylum signalled that he was ready to bombard, and in a few moments the Montank, (his flagship,) the Ironsides, the Catskill, the its continuance than Jeff, Davis is. [Ap-Nantucket the Weehawken, and the Pa-plause. It would have been put down tapseo moved into line in the order which I have named them, and commenced cry for peace. They say they are our hurling their heaviest shot and shell brethren and must be treated kindly. with intervals of but a very few minutes, ial man would stand by and see a desper nile off from the fort, but just at the new, which permitted Tarquin to trample All the while that this was going on, our forces whom we afterwards learned our forces whom we afterwards learned respective homes, conducted themselves the destruction and capture of over a said, and timber high up into the air, than fie who shall attempt to destroy be inquired into. I am not now in pos-be inquired into. I am not now in pos-session of information which would can-To understand this movement we must "Superior Comresons to adminresons t fore, were formed for this express cluty. one in his pocket, and when he got out that the above certificates are correct and until the storming of the batteries on the worth more than all that may be sacrifi-

towards the fort, and before a double- another kind that takes legs and runs quick had been ordered, a tremendous fire from the barbette guns on Fort Sum

When the brigade made the assault The 1st Brigade, under the lead of Gen. There are fashions Strong, failed to take the fort. It was H., the 62d Ohio, Col. Steele, the 67th

Ohio, Col. Vorhees, and the 100th N. Y

Colonel Daniel, to make the attempt.

moment of the time with the utmost des

More than half the time we were in the, fort, the fight was simply a hand to hand one, as the wounds received by the men clearly indicate. Some have sword thrusts, some are backed on the head, ome are stabbed with bayonets, and a end of muskets, but recovered in time to of the reasons set forth in these forms,get a way with swollen heads. There When such a person is notified that he thickly falling around them in them in the darkness, and as prisoners they could to this office. The elecnot be safe, until victory, decisive and un- and forwarded to this office. The elec-

beach; the extreme left on the edge of a Daniel S. Dickenson on the Riot.

Dan. S. Dickinson addressed the people formidable structure, were not brought to should want to see this rebellion petted, bear upon her at any time during the actireated quietly, olive-branched, and ask At half-past twelve Admiral Dahlgren beliion had its existence to-day in the arring their heat within the fort, and, Suppose they are our brethren; what filcontinued this terrible fire until one hour ate brother, madly, insanely, recklessly after the sun had gone down. During all imbrue his hands in the blood of his he afternoon the iron fleet lay about one mother? We fall into Roman degener support.

ous bombardment by land and sea she condescended to reply with but two sone had sworn to defend. This was the reheart, and with one voice, stand by les. She may possibly have fired one sion of a great city, doing deeds savages shot to our one hundred, but I think even the reflection hereafter, that we en that number is a large estimate. There is a large estimate of this relation of the persons depending to the support of the person the rumor to have been correct. But still nobody thought he could do us any harm, we thought the Indiana boys would soon drive him into Kentucky, in this we soon drive him into Kentucky and the solid do us any such dectrines as have been preached in the militia, were felt of by the enemy, have done so, will cheer and sustain us on our way through life; our children been such doctrines as have been preached in the militia, were felt of by the enemy, have done so, will cheer and sustain us on our way through life; our children been such doctrines as have been preached in the militia, were felt of by the enemy, have done so, will cheer and sustain us on our way through life; our children been such doctrines as have been preached in the militia, were felt of by the enemy, have done so, will cheer and sustain us on our way through life; our children been such doctrines as have been preached in the third the militia, were felt of by the enemy, have done so, will cheer and sustain us on our way through life; our children been such doctrines as have been preached in the militia, were felt of by the enemy, have done so, will cheer and The firing was almost entirely from our ride in bodies to their banks and counting own side. With the most powerful glass, but very few men could be seen in the wanted. He warned the merchants, fursteamer was loaded with commissary stores and sent after Gen. Judah's command, consequently we had an opportunity of seeing the effect of Morgan's raid upon the people along the border; and of about three hundred and fifty, under command of Colonel Sontag, near Ports.

command of Colonel Sontag, near Ports.

mouth. The men comprising this command are all indignant at the conduct of and "the Empire" was proclaimed on in the evening, that no bombardment justice if he did not say that he felt his

Colonel instead of putting them down with a The only speeches he need buryport, and their aunt put on the table some nice fish-balls. They didn't know These brigades, as I have remarked be- what to make of them. One of them put

The preservation of the government is away. It will not stay,

Catholics The Roman Catholies are making their oasts that the Protestants are perishing able to draft into the service of the Uni-efore them, and that they, the Irish are ted States, hereby make affidavit that I o possess the land. Especially in New am the only brother of agland are they claiming to be getting under 12 years of age, having neither faahead with prodigious rapidity. The Bos- ther nor mother, and dependent on my ton Pilot, one of the Roman newspapers, labor for support. declares that the "native stock of New England is rapidly diminishing." cording to the "Birth Report," which it notes, there were born in Massachusetts 1861, of American parents, 16,097 chil-Iren, and of foreign parents, 16,125; leaving a balance of 28 on the foreign side.

prepared for such a result, and it occurs ther nor mother, and dependent on his to us as barely possible that the returns labor for support. to us as barely possible that the returns under the discipline of the Roman Catholic Church may be more perfect than the others, and thus the result may be more Personally appeared before me, the favorable to them in appearance than in above named is taking possession of Boston, and the churches long held by Protesants are passing into their hands. The Puritans go West and leave New England to new com- Dated at ers; and Protestanism does not equal the eal of Romanism in building and supporting its institutions. It is so in New only in cases where the labor of the perthe resources of the people for the prop- pendent on him. The exemption does agation of the faith. 'The 'servant girls' not apply in eases where there is sufficient of the Romish Church give more money property to yield support, and the necessystematically to promote the Church than sary business can be transacted for colsystematically to promote the Church than many of our rich people give.

A Sadly Glorious Record.

No regiment in the army has borne its hour held one-half of it, fighting every peration, and, as with the 1st Brigade, it 1st regiment of young Minnesota. It arperson for whom exemption is claimed. was not until he himself fell killed, and rived in Washington in time for the first nearly all his officers wounded, and no re- Bull Run battle, where its loss was heavy. inforcement arriving, that his men fell Since that time it has been in the Sedgwick back, and the rebel shout and cheer of division, through all the varying fortunes victory was heard above the roar of Sum-of the Army of the Potomac. It original-ter and the guns from Cumming's Point. ly numbered 1,050 men, and has had re-

HEAD Q'RS PROVOST MARSHAL, Warren, July 14, 18g4. The following forms are published for the information of those who claim exlew were knocked down with the butt- emption from the draft on account of any was terrible fighting to get into the fort, and terrible fighting to get out of it. The cowardly stood no better chance for their pare his testimony according to the proplives than the fearless. Even if they sur-rendered the shell of Fort Sumpter were thickly falling around them in them in questionable, rested with one or the oth- tion must be made before the son is drafted. Each of these certificates must > have a five cent revenue stamp. Signi tures by a mark must be witnessed. By order of Board of Enrollment.

DARIUS CADWELL,

Provost Marshal 19th Dis't, O. FORM 25.

Certificate of Exemption for the zon of a widow, or of an aged and infirm parent or parents. I, the subscriber, County, State of hereby certify that I, being liable to military duty under the act of Congress "for enrolling and calling

, a widow, (or of , an aged parent,) dependant on my labor for support. We, the subscribers, do hereby certify that the above named only son of a widow, (or of aged and infirm parents.) dependent on his labor for

Personally appeared before me, , the above named

Justice of the Pence Dated this day of Nore 1.- The first of the above certificates must be signed by the person claiming exemption, and the second by two refore a magistrate.

on him. The exemption does not apply to yield support, and the necessary business for collecting the income can be transacted by agents, trustees, or the like.

FORM 26, 1 54 115 11 retificate of a parent that he or she desires one of his or her sons exempted. 1, the subscriber, the father (or mother and , residents county, State of hereby certify that I am aged support on the labor of my two sons above ed; and that I elect my , shall be exempt from the olling and calling out the national forces,

We, the subscribers, do hereby certify

Personally appeared before me the above true, to the best of their knowledge and Nozz 1.-The first certificate must be this matter. There is something dead in and the second by two respectable citizens county, or district in which the persons

1, the subscriber,

Certificate that the person liable to draft is the andy brother of a child or children dependent on his labor for support.

county. State of to draft, is the only brother of We frankly confess that we were not unner 12 years of age, having neither fa-reality. But we know that a great population of foreigners, especially of Irish, certificate is correct and true to the best Boston, and the of their knowledge and belief,

York, we doubt not it is so in Boston .- son claiming exemption is actually neces Our system fails to develope, as it ought, sary for the support of the persons de-lecting the income by agents, trustees, or Nore 2.-The first certificate must be signed by the person claiming exemption and the second by two respectable sons (heads of families) resident in the art in the war more heroically than the same town, county, or district with the

> Certificate that two members of the family of the person liable to draft are abready in the > military service of the United States, We the subscribers. residents of county. State of certify that two members